

A photograph of a white house with a porch, an American flag, and a brick building next to it. The house has white horizontal siding and a gabled roof with a brick chimney. A large American flag is flying on a pole in front of the house. To the left, a brick building is partially visible. The foreground is filled with green plants and a white picket fence. # LODGING IN COMFORT

"I love the Amana Colonies. . . I love the nighttime, the absolute quiet, at least compared to the city and suburbs, and the night sky with millions of stars that look close enough to touch."

Joanne Claussen, Minneapolis

Stop to count the stars or splash with your kids at the Wasserbahn Waterpark, staying in the Amana Colonies offers endless opportunities to slow-down, unwind and enjoy life.

Amana Colonies bed and breakfasts, inns, motels and resorts offer amenities and personal attention in the uniquely historic setting of the Colonies while providing enough choices to accommodate anyone's budget and lodging preferences.

The Amana Colonies Holiday Inn and Wasserbahn Waterpark Resort is a full-service family resort and convention facility located at I-80 Exit 225, Little Amana. With their indoor, themed waterpark it's truly a kid-friendly environment. And Little Amana, with shops and restaurants, is conveniently located just 7 minutes from the seven villages and about 15 minutes from Iowa City/Coralville.

The Heritage Inn Amana Colonies Hotel & Suites, also located at I-80 Exit 225, is a comfortable, convenient, economical stay. With 61 rooms, a plentiful, delicious continental breakfast and a beautiful indoor pool, the Heritage Inn offers Amana Colonies visitors a restful overnight.

On main street in the village of Amana is the Guest House Motel, conveniently located in the heart of the Colonies. Comfortable lodging, hospitable service and just steps from restaurants, historical attractions and shops, the Guest House Motel is an ideal retreat.

Each one of the bed and breakfasts in the Amana Colonies has its own personality. Located in historical communal-era homes, farm houses and kitchen houses, staying in a B & B is a perfect way to experience the Colonies while enjoying personal service and hospitality. Take a long walk at sunset, relax by the fire with a glass of wine, unwind in your beautifully-appointed room, indulge in a home-cooked breakfast, have your coffee on the porch, chat with your hosts and get to know the Colonies; Amana Colonies bed and breakfasts offer so much to tempt you to stay.

The Amana Colonies RV Park, located between the villages of Amana and Middle Amana, 1/4 mile off Highways 220 and 151, is one of Iowa's top RV vacation sites. With electrical hookups, sewer, dump station, RV repair service, water, laundry, showers, meeting facilities and accommodations for groups, the Amana Colonies RV Park is recreational vehicle and tent camping at its best. The park is located near the Kolonieweg Recreational Trail and the Old Creamery Theatre's Price Creek Stage.

Just down the road at I-80 Exit 220, Williamsburg and in Marengo are motels and inns offering additional lodging choices as you plan your Amana Colonies get-away. Convenient lodging is also available a few short minutes away in Cedar Rapids and Iowa City.
